

GAJENDRA NEGI PROJECT

GARHWAL INDIA

I am attempting to help out this young man of the Garhwal Himalaya in Northern India who has had the great misfortune to fall from a tree while collecting fodder for milk cows and become paralysed from the waist down.

Any donation, however small, will significantly contribute to creating the possibility of a positive future for this young man. Funds can be directed to me, Kim Hartlin. I will transfer them to Vaibhav Kala, our co-ordinator in India, who will ensure they are used effectively.

Please make cheques out to: Kim Hartlin, The Gajendra Negi Project
